Three Fruity Ladies

Three Fruity Ladies produce award winning delicious chutney, jam, marmalade and homemade preserves in Herefordshire

Runner Bean Chutney - £3.95

Their Runnerbean Chutney featured on BBC2 'Top of the Shop' hosted by Tom Kerridge. Also known as Green Bean or Runner Bean, this chutney goes brilliantly with cold meats, curry and cheeses!!! Goes equally well with our other products to form a ploughmans lunch.

Farmhouse Pickle with Herefordshire Ale - £3.95

A sweet, tangy farmhouse pickle made with a lovely selection of their garden fruit and vegetables, with the addition of black treacle and a pint of Herefordshire ale from Swan Brewery. It is very versatile and a great accompaniment to enjoy with ploughman's lunches, cold meats and game, salads, sandwiches and cheeses, in fact any meal, and makes a delightful addition to homemade pasties and pork pies.

Apple & Orgasmic Cider Chutney - £3.95

Their Apple Chutney is produced with their apples and local cider from the Orgasmic Cider Company based in the Herefordshire countryside. Produced using a traditional family recipe this apple chutney will compliment any cheese or meat platter and is a good all-rounder, perfect with cold meats such as pork.

Spiced Pear Chutney - £3.95

A tangy and fruity chutney which pairs well with Blue cheese, but equally well with cold meats, cheeses and game.

Caramelised Red Onions with Red Wine - £3.95

Caramelised Red Onions are extremely popular and delicious with bangers and mash or in a cheese toastie. Their homegrown red onions are cooked gently in red wine and red wine vinegar until tender, then caramelised with sugar to produce a yummy pot of loveliness.

Seville Orange Marmalade - £3.95

A traditional family recipe is used to produce their homemade orange marmalade using locally sourced organic Seville oranges. This marmalade delivers a full, strong and slightly bitter flavour which doesn't disappoint the marmalade lover.

Tomato Ketchup – £3.50

A real ketchup that is great on bacon, burgers, fish & chips and can also be used for your homemade pizzas and in casseroles/stews too.
